

Illinois Medical Institute Retains Michigan Organizational Development Consulting Firm

The Tolle Group expands client base with addition of Midwest Orthopaedic Consultants

ANN ARBOR, MI, PR Web, November 6, 2007 --The Tolle Group, an Ann Arbor-based organization development consulting firm, is pleased to announce that it has been retained by Midwest Orthopaedic Consultants S.C. of Orland Park, Illinois to assist in developing its leadership talent and organizational culture to drive business growth.

“We feel The Tolle Group has the perfect combination of experience, skills, and client service philosophy to provide us with a customized strategy to build the talent and infrastructure needed to grow our business,” says Midwest Orthopaedic administrator, Reem Ahzari. “We look forward to a partnership that will allow our company to deliver an even higher level of service and care to our patients.”

Through its Leadership Essentials training programs and Organizational Performance cultural and leadership assessments, The Tolle Group turns technical managers into business leaders and organizations into top performers. It also publishes Corporate X-Ray (www.corporatexray.com), a weekly blog dedicated to uncovering the dynamics and understanding the impact of corporate culture on business performance. It recently released a white paper entitled, “Turning Technical Managers into Business Leaders” available at www.tollegroup.com.
